

Suzanne Carlson is Administrator of ODOT's Public Transportation Division. She joined ODOT as Director of its Climate Office in July 2021. She has worked throughout the country in multimodal transportation and climate action, with a focus on collaboration and results. Prior to joining ODOT, Carlson led public and active transportation programs in Chicago and Tennessee. Carlson has a Master's in Public Administration, is a LEED Accredited Professional BD+C, and can often be seen riding Amtrak Cascades and POINT bus. She lives in Salem, Oregon.